

MORNING APPEAL.

SATURDAY.....JANUARY 19

THE IRRIGATION QUESTION.

Yesterday afternoon Assemblyman Reip of White Pine county introduced a resolution appointing a Joint Committee on Irrigation from both Houses to consider all Irrigation bills with power to frame a bill on the subject if they thought it proper. Mr. Reip supported the resolution with some sensible remarks on the very important subject of Irrigation, a subject of more importance to this State than anything that has yet been brought before the Legislature. The resolution passed and it is to be hoped that the members appointed on so important a Committee will be men of practical experience in such matters. The following is the full text of the resolution:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution relative to appointing a Committee on Irrigation.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, that a Committee of four from the Assembly and three from the Senate be appointed to be known as the Joint Committee on Irrigation. It shall be the duty of said Committee to investigate and prepare a bill for the more extended and economical use of the waters that are now or can be obtained for irrigating purposes in the State of Nevada, in order that large and valuable tracts of land in the State which are at the present time waste and unproductive may be made valuable for agricultural purposes. Said Committee shall invite before it, the attendance of persons interested in agriculture and grazing pursuits in this State, as well as any other persons, whose opinions in the judgment of said Committee may be of benefit in the investigation of this question, and such persons may appear before said Committee in person, or may transmit their views upon the subject in writing to said Committee. Said Committee shall have the privilege of meeting in the rooms assigned to the Committee on Agriculture of the Assembly, and Clerk of the Assembly Committee on Agriculture is hereby made Clerk of said Joint Committee. Said Committee shall prepare and present to the Assembly at the earliest date practicable the bill herein before provided for.

The Text Book Ring.

The effort now being made by the Legislature to print the text books of the State at home ought to succeed.

Nevada has a well equipped State Printing office and could easily supply most of the text books needed in this State and supply them at less cost.

This would work a double benefit. It would keep a number of men and women employ all the year round and soon release the State from the grip of the school book ring which has been on its throat for some years past.

The APPEAL understands that the School book ring is already moving to beat the bill and crush out the project as it has done before in other States.

Nevada has been a rich plum for the San Francisco and New York school book houses with a change of text book every few years, entailing a tax on every man with a family.

It is a tax on the education of children and also a tax on the intelligence and credulity of our citizens.

The text book can be printed in this State and furnished the school children as cheaply as they are now furnished by the men who make enormous commissions and sales.
